

INTRODUCTION FOR JAN SPENCE

Jan Spence is an international speaker, trainer, and consultant.

She began her selling career at age ten selling donuts for church camp.

Her family introduced peach Jell-O to the world through a national commercial in the 1970's.

She has helped companies such as Pillsbury, Wal-mart and Frito-Lay.

Jan also fulfilled a lifelong dream of playing women's professional full-tackle football with the Jacksonville Dixie Blues.

Her passion is helping individuals and companies move to the next level so that they can fulfill their potential and live purposeful, meaningful lives.

This TEDx speaker comes to us today to inspire us and help us take our communication and teamwork skills out of this world.

So put your hands together and let's welcome, Jan Spence!
